

DISTINGUISHED SUPERVISION AWARD

Description

An exemplary supervisor demonstrates engaged mentoring of undergraduate (B.Ed. Honours) and graduate students, and/or postdoctoral scholars through regular meetings and research training aimed at promoting excellence in research and scholarship. Exemplary Supervisors assist their undergraduate and graduate students and/or post doctoral scholars in a variety of ways, such as: applying for awards and scholarships, obtaining research funds, developing track records in refereed publications and conference presentations, and encouraging and supporting apprenticeship in a research community of practice (collaborative review of papers, grants, academic writing, and data analysis). One academic staff member will be recognized each year.

Purpose

The Werklund School of Education values exemplary supervision; the Distinguished Supervision Award has been established to recognize a full time, continuing academic staff member who demonstrates excellence in undergraduate (B.Ed.
