Submit all documentation in a single PDF.

Leadership in Education Adjudication Criteria

Nominations for the Leadership in Education Award are to be based on a nominee demonstrating:

- Leading specific initiatives that enhance student learning, the teaching development of colleagues, or administrative practices that recognize and reward teaching in faculty careers.
- Making a significant and sustained impact on learning at the departmental, faculty and/or institutional level.
- Demonstrating commitment to teaching and learning by making substantial contributions to educational initiatives.
- Sharing teaching or curriculum development expertise with others through mentoring or more formal workshop or program initiatives.
- Actively engaging colleagues in enhancing their teaching practices and/or scholarship.
- Contributing teaching and learning expertise in ways that have influence beyond one's own teaching practice, including sharing knowledge and research with others.
- Demonstrating critical reflection on the effectiveness of teaching and learning and responding to the challenges identified in ways that engage others in understanding and improving student learning.

Selection Process

All nomination packages are reviewed by a subcommittee of the Awards Committee, with recommendations made to the Academic Awards Committee. The subcommittee is Co-Chaired by Associate Deans of Teaching and Learning and Research and includes EDSA Chairs. All applications will be reviewed based on the criteria.

Recognition

One Leadership in Education Award recipient will be announced and honoured at an appropriate venue. The award recipient will receive up to $2,000 to be used (by June 30, 2025) towards attending a conference of their choice. A letter will be provided acknowledging the honour from the Werklund School of Education.
