

WERKLUND TEACHING EXCELLENCE AWARD

Description

The Werklund School of Education awards one Werklund Teaching Excellence Award annually to a full time, continuing academic staff member who demonstrates outstanding teaching and learning experiences. A nominee should be an individual who is widely recognized for their teaching and academic inquiry within the School, supports the educational excellence of colleagues, and embodies a spirit of instructional innovation.

Eligibility

- All current Werklund School of Education full time, continuing academic staff, contingent and limited appointments with 2 or more years of teaching in the Werklund School of Education are eligible for this award.
- Individuals currently registered as graduate students are not eligible for this award.
- An individual is eligible to receive the award once in a five-year period.

Rules and Guidelines

- The nominee must display excellence in the criteria.
- The nomination MUST include 2 signed letters of support with at least one from former students (an individual or a group letter).
- The nominee is responsible for submitting a complete nomination package to the Chair of the Academic Awards Committee (AAC); nominations will be accepted until May 1, 2026.

Nomination Package

The nomination package consists of the following:

- Nominee to provide a nomination dossier with evidence for excellence in the criteria. This would include a teaching philosophy statement (1 page), a description of specific teaching strategies and their impact on learning, a summary of data from student feedback and a reflective summary statement. (maximum 10 pages)
- Two signed letters of support (at least one from a former student) (maximum 2 pages each)

Use 12pt font and single spacing for all documentation.
Submit all documentation in a single PDF.

Adjudication Criteria

Nominations for the Werklund Teaching Excellence Award are to be based on a nominee demonstrating evidence of the following criteria:

- Motivate students' interest in learning, and establish relevance of subject matter.
- Set clear goals and expectations for learning in courses and individual learning activities.
- Design learning experiences that actively engage students, and encourage collaboration.
- Challenge learners to develop their critical thinking and independent learning abilities.
- Design student assessment strategies that enhance learning, and are appropriately aligned with intended learning.
- Design strategies to facilitate feedback (e.g., instructor, self, and/or peer) on students' learning to motivate and support progressive learning and growth.
- Exhibit respect for students, which includes showing interest in students' inquiries and ideas.
- Collect feedback, engage in professional learning activities, and reflect on teaching, in order to strengthen their teaching practices and improve student learning.

Selection Process

All nomination packages are reviewed by the Teaching and Learning Advisory Committee, with recommendations made to the Academic Awards Committee (AAC). All applications will be reviewed based on the criteria.

Recognition

One Teaching Excellence Award recipient will be announced and presented at an appropriate venue. The award recipient will receive up to $2,000 to be used (by June 30, 2027) towards attending a conference of their choice. The recipient will have their names engraved on the Werklund Teaching Excellence Award plaque on display in the Education Building. A letter will be provided acknowledging the honour from the Werklund School of Education.
