EDUC 101: English for Academic Success
Summer, 2024

Class Dates:    July 1-5 (self-paced pre-reading and pre-viewing)
                July 8-19 (on-campus; Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday, Friday; 9:00-11:50 am)
                July 22-26 (asynchronous), online via D2L

Last Day to Add/Drop/Swap: Due to the non-standard dates associated with this program, please check your Student Centre for the important dates pertaining to your section.

Pre-requisite: Acceptance to Bridging to the Community-based Bachelor of Education program.

Office Hours: Available by appointment.

Email: Students are required to use a University of Calgary (@ucalgary.ca) email address for all correspondence. Instructor will typically respond within 24 hours on weekdays.

COURSE DESCRIPTION

The intent of the Bridge to Education course is to bridge the student and their lived experiences with the requirements of admission to the Werklund School of Education. In EDUC 101 students will relate their own life story and experiences to the wider human condition by reading a variety of literary texts and by writing in a variety of literary forms. Assignments will present multiple opportunities for students to develop a critical understanding of primarily Canadian literature in a personal context as well as provide practice to develop writing skills for the university level.

LEARNER OUTCOMES

In completing this course, students will:

1. Explore the role that literature from diverse authors, essayists, and poets plays in their local and global communities, and will consider its cultural significance from a personal perspective.
2. Read and respond to a variety of written and visual texts from several different genres including poetry, essays, short stories, novels, media/film, and dramatic script.
3. Develop their use of the writing process (which includes brainstorming, organizing, drafting, peer review, revising, and polishing of written work) to promote further academic success.
4. Find their voice through multiple means of expression including essay writing, oral presentations, and informal personal response.

COURSE DESIGN AND DELIVERY

This course will be delivered face-to-face on campus for two weeks followed by one week of online engagement through a D2L environment.
The readings and resources are required for the successful completion of this course. Note that these references are not listed using expected APA 7th Edition formatting, so if you use them for your assignments, you will need to format them as per the standard. Please refer to the detailed Weekly Plan of this Course Outline for the order to read these literary texts.

LEARNING TASKS AND ASSESSMENT

There are three required Learning Tasks for this course.

LEARNING TASK 1: Portfolio (Critical Response to Texts)

DUE: Portfolio is due at the end of class on July 12, 2024.

Time will be spent during each class to understand the meaning of a variety of texts from several different literary genres. The purpose of the portfolio is for the student to demonstrate, through a variety of textual forms, their understanding of the conventions of the genre and the text itself. The portfolio should contain the following four components:

- Script Writing – “Fourteen” by Lee Kvern into a dramatic script
- Found Poetry – Creation of poetry from a non-fiction printed text (i.e. newspaper article)
- Fakebook profile – characterization from “On the Rainy River”
- Setting sketch – setting from “The Shining Houses” by Alice Munroe

More detailed description and templates for each element of the portfolio will be provided in class and through D2L.

In addition to submitting a hard copy in class, all completed portfolio tasks must be submitted through D2L by 11:59pm on Friday, July 12, 2024. Because of the artistic nature of these tasks, digital submissions can include scanned copies of designs or photos of work completed.

Learning Task 2: “I Am” Research Essay

Due: Bring hard copy of essay draft/outline for peer review start of class on July 17, 2024. Final essay uploaded to D2L on July 19, 2024 by 11:59pm.

For this assignment, you will write a 750 – 1000 word (3-4 page) autobiographical essay that includes a research component. Further direction will be provided to you during the second week of in-person classes.

Your research essay will follow traditional conventions for essay writing and your final submission should include:

1. Final copy of your essay for grading (750-1000 words, double-spaced, Times New Roman font, 1” margin, title page, APA 7 formatting).
2. Clear, highlighted thesis statement
3. Brainstorming notes (templates provided in D2L)
4. Rough copy of your essay (with evidence of instructor and peer review)
5. Essay outline (template provided in class)

<tr>
<td>Writing Conventions</td>
<td>Essay written expression exceeds all expectations for writing.</td>
<td>Paragraph Unity – Each paragraph discusses one topic succinctly in the order as listed on the thesis statement. Evidence used to explain topic is relevant. Thesis Statement – The thesis statement outlines what will be discussed in the essay, in the order the facts are discussed. Evidence of the writing process – including brainstorming, organizing information and editing has been included.</td>
<td>Paragraph Unity – Each paragraph attempts to focus on one aspect of the topic. Evidence used to explain topic is useful. Thesis Statement – The thesis statement suggests what will be discussed in the essay although additional clarity is needed. Evidence of the writing process – one element of the process is missing.</td>
<td>Paragraph Unity – Paragraphs are either too long or too short. Evidence used to explain topic is marginal or not well linked to topic. Thesis Statement – The thesis statement reads as a general topic sentence lacking structure for the essay. Evidence of the writing process – essays lack evidence of brainstorming, outlining/organization, and editing.</td>
<td>Paragraph Unity – Paragraphs lack unity and are long blocks of text about multiple topics. Thesis Statement – The thesis statement reads as a general topic sentence lacking structure for the essay. Evidence of the writing process – essays lack evidence of brainstorming, outlining/organization, and editing.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Style and Attention to Form</td>
<td>Essay is publication-ready with no errors in written expression.</td>
<td>The essay has few or no grammatical errors. Editing is evident on submitted copies. Spelling – There are no spelling errors. Sophisticated use of APA is evident.</td>
<td>The essay has some grammatical errors. Editing is attempted on submitted copies. Spelling – There are avoidable spelling errors. A solid use of APA is evident.</td>
<td>The essay has several avoidable grammatical and spelling errors. Editing is not evident on submitted copies. A beginning use of APA is evident.</td>
<td>Due to multiple grammatical and spelling errors, the essay is difficult to read. Little attempt is made to integrate APA.</td>

LEARNING TASK 3: Novel Study (online through D2L) Journal Responses to Reading

DUE: Daily Posts posted to D2L: July 22-26, 2024 (daily by 8:00 pm).

For this assignment, students will engage in online discussion through the D2L Discussion area detailing their learning while reading Indian Horse by Richard Wagamese. Students should begin reading this novel early in July, so that they are prepared to discuss it online with peers during the final week of this course.

The purpose of this assignment for you and your peers to gain a deeper understanding of the themes, characters, and symbols in the novel, and to assist you with becoming familiar with online discussions in D2L. Daily Paragraphs and Response to peer posts should aim to develop your and your peers’ understanding of the novel.

Each student will be assigned one day to answer the main question about the reading passage and facilitate the online discussion between their peers. On your facilitation day, you will upload a well-written paragraph in response to a question that you will be given in advance of the online week. You may upload your response to the main question earlier than the date on which it is due, but you cannot upload it after it is due. If you are concerned about being late with a post, please discuss this with the instructor prior to the due date.

The remaining group members are expected to respond thoughtfully to this post of the other students in your group each day before 8:00 pm. While the instructor will be monitoring and reading all posts, the discussions will be primarily student-directed, meaning the instructor may or may not join the discussion. The language used in the posts should reflect professional relationships between colleagues and, consequently, is respectful of others’ experiences and understanding of the novel. Slang and colloquial language should be avoided and expected conventions of good writing should be followed (grammar, spelling, and APA 7 referencing).

<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Facilitated Post</td>
<td>Your assigned post exceeds all expectations and stands as excellence in online discussion.</td>
<td>An initial or responding paragraph is posted as assigned. You post highlights key issues from the novel and provides a strong question for discussion. They answer the main question posed in D2L. Page numbers are included to assist with group discussion.</td>
<td>An initial or responding paragraph is posted “just in time”. Your post refers to the novel but does not provide a meaningful question for further discussion. They nominally answer the main question posed in D2L. Few page numbers are included to assist with group discussion.</td>
<td>An initial or responding paragraph is missing from one or more days. Posts refer superficially to some parts of the novel and do not foster further discussion. They superficially or literally answer the main question posed in D2L. Page numbers are not included to assist with group discussion.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Response to Group Posts</td>
<td>Your responding posts exceed all expectations.</td>
<td>The response is thoughtful and works to bridge own understanding of the novel through discussion with others. Personal experience connects meaningfully to novel.</td>
<td>The response brings only own understanding of the novel to the discussion. Personal experience occasionally connects meaningfully to novel.</td>
<td>The response does not build group understanding of the novel to the discussion. Personal experience is unrelated to the novel.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Style and Attention to Form</td>
<td>Posts are outstanding in written expression and citation.</td>
<td>Posts are well-written with few or no grammatical or spelling errors. Posts are uploaded in a timely fashion to foster group discussion.</td>
<td>Posts need revision for clarity of expression with numerous grammatical or spelling errors. Posts are rarely uploaded in a timely fashion to foster group discussion.</td>
<td>Posts are difficult to read due to numerous mistakes with writing conventions. Posts are uploaded too late for group discussion.</td>

The Expectation of Excellence in Professional Work

Please review the Academic Calendar carefully. It describes the program and provides detailed schedules and important dates. It contains information on expectations for student work and professional conduct. In addition, procedures are described regarding concern about student performance in the program. Please pay especially careful attention to details and descriptions in the following topic areas:

- The Importance of Attendance and Participation in Every Class

As this is a professional program, each classroom experience is designed with the expectation that all members will be fully involved in every classes and in all coursework experiences. As you are a member of a learning community your contribution is vital and highly valued, just as it will be when you take on the professional responsibilities of being a teacher. We expect that you will not be absent from synchronous, in-person classes with the exception of documented instances of personal or family illness or for religious requirements.

- Engagement in Class Discussion and Inquiry

Another reason for the importance of attendance and participation in every class is that the course involves working with fellow students to create a community for sharing ideas and thinking. For example, each class you will work with a small group to engage fellow students in discussions on work being considered in class. You will also help other groups by providing ideas for scholarly inquiry in assignments. If you find that you are experiencing difficulties as a group collaborating, please inform the instructor.

To be successful in this very compressed class, you are required to complete all of the readings prior to class, participate in class discussions, provide and accept peer feedback, engage in collaborative activities, and complete all assignments before the due date.

Expectations for Writing

Because this course is an English/Language Arts course, all assignments will be assessed on writing skills. As such, the use of online or digital writing and editing assistance is strongly discouraged except for the tools suggested to you by your instructor. Please note that all assignments are expected to be the original work of the student and students are not to employ text generation software (for example, ChatGPT). Writing skills include not only surface correctness (grammar, punctuation, sentence structure, etc.), but also general clarity and organization. Sources used in research papers must be properly documented. If you need help with your writing, you may use the writing support services in the Learning Commons. For further information, please refer to the official online University of Calgary Calendar, Academic Regulations, E. Course Information, E.2: Writing Across the Curriculum: http://www.ucalgary.ca/pubs/calendar/current/e-2.html

Late Submissions

All late submissions of assignments must be discussed with the instructor prior to the due date. Late submissions received after the due date, without an agreed upon extension, will be assessed a late penalty of 5% per day and will not be accepted after four days late. Students may be required to provide written documentation of extenuating circumstances (e.g. statutory declaration, doctor’s note, note from the University of Calgary Wellness Centre, obituary notice). A deferral of up to 30 days may be granted at the discretion of the Associate Dean of Undergraduate Programs with accompanying written evidence.

Issues with Group Tasks

This course does not include any graded group work; however, you are expected to collaborate with your peers. With respect to group work, if your group is having difficulty collaborating effectively, please contact the instructor immediately. If a group is unable to collaborate effectively or discuss course materials online in a timely manner, the instructor may re-assign members to different groups or assign individual work for completion.

Students in the B.Ed. program must have an overall GPA of 2.5 in the semester to continue in the program without repeating courses.

Academic Accommodation

It is the student’s responsibility to request academic accommodations according to the University policies and procedures listed below. The student accommodation policy can be found at: https://www.ucalgary.ca/legal-services/sites/default/files/teams/1/Policies-Student-Accommodation-Policy.pdf. Students needing an accommodation because of a disability or medical condition should communicate this need to Student Accessibility Services in accordance with the Procedure for Accommodations for Students with Disabilities: ucalgary.ca/legal-services/sites/default/files/teams/1/Policies-Accommodation-for-Students-with-Disabilities-Procedure.pdf. Students needing an accommodation in relation to their coursework based on a Protected Ground other than Disability, should communicate this need, preferably in writing, to their Instructor.

Academic Misconduct
For information on academic misconduct and its consequences, please see the University of Calgary Calendar at http://www.ucalgary.ca/pubs/calendar/current/k.html

Attendance/ Prolonged Absence
Students may be asked to provide supporting documentation for an exemption/special request. This may include, but is not limited to, a prolonged absence from a course where participation is required, a missed course assessment, a deferred examination, or an appeal. Students are encouraged to submit documentation that will support their situation. Supporting documentation may be dependent on the reason noted in their personal statement/explanation provided to explain their situation. This could be medical certificate/documentation, references, police reports, invitation letter, third party letter of support or a statutory declaration etc. The decision to provide supporting documentation that best suits the situation is at the discretion of the student.

Falsification of any supporting documentation will be taken very seriously and may result in disciplinary action through the Academic Discipline regulations or the Student Non-Academic Misconduct policy. https://www.ucalgary.ca/pubs/calendar/current/n-1.html

The Freedom of Information Protection of Privacy Act prevents instructors from placing assignments or examinations in a public place for pickup and prevents students from access to exams or assignments other than their own. Therefore, students and instructors may use one of the following options: return/collect assignments during class time or during instructors’ office hours, students provide instructors with a self-addressed stamped envelope, or submit/return assignments as electronic files attached to private e-mail messages.
