Class Dates: September 6-December 7, 2022
Class Days:
Sections 1-12: All classes will occur on Mondays and Fridays on campus.
Sections 30-32: Synchronous classes using Zoom will be held on September 12, September 26, October 24, November 21 and December 5

Reading Break: November 6-12, 2022
Field Experience I: October 11-21, 2022

Last Day to Add/Drop/Swap: Due to the non-standard dates associated with this program, please check your Student Centre for the important dates pertaining to your section.

Prerequisite: Due to the multiple pathways in the Bachelor of Education, please consult Undergraduate Programs in Education for questions related to pre-requisite courses.

Office Hours: By appointment in consult with your Instructor

Email: Students are required to use a University of Calgary (@ucalgary.ca) email address for all correspondence.

Fall 2022 – 440 Section Details
Field Experience 1 will take place October 11-21 and all students will remain in the same section and have the same instructor as in EDUC 430. All sections will have seminar dates that occur during the day. The course outline for EDUC 440 will be created by the Directors of Field Experience and shared with you.

COURSE DESCRIPTION:
EDUC 430: The Pragmatics of Learning and Teaching focuses on the nature of teaching and learning from both a theoretical and pragmatic perspective addressing ways teachers engage with curricula and assessment to make them relevant and meaningful for their students. The course also explores teachers’ interactions with systems and school policies and emphasizes topics such as: school culture, inclusive practices, planning and preparing for teaching, assessment and professional conduct. In discussion and through experiential learning opportunities, this course in concert with EDUC 440, Field Experience I, will prepare students to participate in classroom and school communities and for ongoing reflection on professional work, values and goals.

LEARNER OUTCOMES:

Through this course, it is expected that participants will develop and/or engage with:

- An ability to effectively articulate an understanding of the concepts of teaching and learning and to draw on personal reflection and observation to support these views with examples.
- Knowledge of school culture and the roles of teachers within schools.
- An introduction to the importance of professional self-care as a component of occupational health.
- An understanding of diversity within schools and communities, as well as of the similar and diverse needs of learners within classrooms and methods to support inclusion.
- A core understanding of modes of instruction, assessment, and the foundations of planning for successful teaching experiences.
- An understanding of the ethical underpinnings of the teaching profession.

COURSE DESIGN AND DELIVERY:

This course will be delivered both synchronously (in person on campus for sections 1-12 or on Zoom for sections 30-32), and asynchronously, using D2L. The course is organized according to three essential questions which include:

- Who am I? How do my beliefs shape my perception of learning, teaching and school culture?
- What are the pragmatic realities of learning and teaching and how are these realities played out in schools?
- What is education for?

In an attempt to seek answers to each essential question, a number of topics will be examined, each designed to broaden your perspectives as you move into the role of teacher. These three essential questions are designed to examine teaching and learning from a nested perspective, beginning with the individual as a student of teaching, moving to the student as teacher in school, moving to the school as a construct of society. This course is also designed to support and inform your EDUC 440, Field Experience I course. In this course you will be prepared to enter the field in order to observe and assist. To this end, all topics will build upon one another in preparation for your first field experience and then as a reflection upon your return from the field. A variety of instructional strategies will be used to assist in the development of topic understanding, with an emphasis on interaction, discussion, and the sharing of ideas, experiences, and knowledge. Additionally, there will be four assessment tasks intended to prompt reflection on the content and spur insights related to your understanding of the pragmatics of learning and teaching.

REQUIRED AND SUPPLEMENTAL RESOURCES:

The resources associated with this course fall into two categories including required readings and supplemental resources. Each week you will be asked to read all required readings and a minimum of two supplemental resources. In most cases, the required readings will attend to the scholarship of teaching and learning while the supplemental resources will attend to the pragmatics of the teaching profession or the teaching profession in society.

All readings can be obtained online or will be provided by your instructor. Please see the WEEKLY COURSE SCHEDULE on the next page for links to required readings and supplemental resources.

Note: The instructor may supplement readings with additional material and your instructor may require you to attend to one or more supplemental resources specifically.

WEEKLY COURSE SCHEDULE:
The following schedule provides an overview of the topics, activities and readings to be taken up as you begin to examine the essential questions related to this course. In all cases, readings should be completed prior to the first class in the week. The following schedule may change in response to student needs and emerging issues.

Essential Question #1: Who am I? How do my beliefs and history shape my perceptions of learning, teaching and school culture?

Week 1 – September 5-9: Who am I and how do my perceptions shape my view of schools? What is school culture and how will my perceptions shape school culture?

This class will explore professional identity and perceptions of schools.
- Welcome and introductions
- Teachers as scholars and professionals
- School culture and the role of the teacher
- Individual Reflection – What skills am I bringing to this role? What are my perceptions of schools? What experiences have influenced my thinking? What do I believe schools to be? What do I believe school culture to be and how will I influence it in positive ways?

Any supplemental resource as required by the instructor.

Week 2 – September 12-16: How do I build a positive classroom community? How do my perceptions of schooling impact my beliefs around classroom community and positive school relationships?

This class will discuss the many approaches to good teaching and creating positive learning experiences.
• The Building of Relationships
• Communities of Learners
• Routines and Strategies that Support Learners
• Establishing a Positive Classroom Environment
• Inquiry and Learning

Essential Question #2: What are the pragmatic realities of learning and teaching and how are these realities played out in schools?

Week 3 – September 19-23: What role does planning play in preparing to teach? How do teachers design tasks and what are the basic planning elements I will be accountable for as a teacher?

This class will examine both the knowledge building and task design ideals behind good planning and the technical aspects of creating a sound lesson plan that is both practical and informative for the practicing teacher. This section will form the foundation for your Specialization classes.

- Elements of a Lesson Plan
- Knowledge Building and Task Design
- Evaluating Lesson Planning Choices
- Beginning with the End in Mind

Required Readings:

Various lesson plan templates/exemplars used in the Field Experience Program, Werklund School of Education. Available on your D2L shell.

Supplemental Resources:

Week 4 – September 26-30: What role does assessment play in preparing to teach? What counts as evidence of learning and how do teachers implement assessment for, of and as learning?

This class will explore, as an overview, different types of assessment and their uses in teaching and learning. More robust instruction and practice will happen in your Assessment course.

- How were you assessed as a learner, and how was this assessment effective or not?
- What core terminology is used in describing assessment?
- How have assessment methods evolved over time?
- What do we know about the relationship between assessment and learning?
- How does assessment relate to diversity and inclusion in classrooms?
Required Reading:

Week 5 – October 3-7: How do we prepare to become part of a profession? What does it mean to observe without judgment and what is the role of professionalism in Education?

Classes will examine the purpose of observation and reflection in preparation for the first field practicum and the ethical identity of teachers as professionals. This week forms the basis for your Field Experience courses.

• To observe without judgment although we arrive with assumptions – learning to listen and to see
• Importance of getting to know the students and building relationships
• The role of inclusion and diversity in schools
• The Code of Professional Conduct in Student Teaching
• Professional Communication
• Relationships with Colleagues – what happens when things go wrong?
• FOIP

October 11-21: Field Experience I: HAVE FUN!!!

Week 6 – October 24-28: What did you learn through your observations and interactions during Field Experience I? How did you see theory enacted in the everyday running of schools?

This week will serve as an opportunity to share and discuss field experiences with attention given to the topics of planning, assessment, diversity, inclusion and building a positive classroom community already discussed.

Required Reading:
Students will be expected to draw from their field experience journal in order to participate in discussions surrounding the field experience. Students are also encouraged to examine the website for the school division in which they were placed and to come prepared to speak to the policies and guidelines set out around planning, assessment, diversity, inclusion and building a positive classroom community. Some examples are listed under Supplemental Resources.

Any supplemental resource as required by the instructor

Week 7 – October 31-November 4: How do classrooms look and feel today? What role does diversity play in inclusive classrooms? What does it mean to attend to the needs of all learners?

This class will serve as an opportunity to share and discuss the ideas of inclusive practice and learner differentiation that you observed in your field experiences. This week serves as an introduction to some of the ideas that will be learned in your Diversity and Individual Learning courses.

- Planning for Diversity and Inclusion
- Why and how should we differentiate?
- What role does the differentiation of teaching strategies play in student engagement and success?
- What does Universal Design for Learning offer us when working with varied learners?
- How do we negotiate the tension between the seemingly opposing gestures of differentiation and inclusion?

Term Break: November 6-12

Week 8 – November 14-18: No readings this week. Reflection and discussion of LT2.

Week 9 – November 21-25: How can we support English language learners?

This class will examine ways in which teachers in the field foster achievement of ELL students in the field. This week serves as an introduction to concepts you will examine further in your Specialization, Individual Learning, and Diversity courses.

- What should we know about the current ELL population in Alberta?
- How can we support ELLs in the classroom, school, and community?
- How can we differentiate instruction and assessment for ELLs?
- What resources are available to the classroom teacher to support their teaching?
- What is academic language?
- What is transferred from the first language to the second language?

Essential Question #3: What is education for?

Week 10 – November 28-December 2: What is education for and what is schooling for?

This class will examine the current and future of education in Alberta specifically and in Canada more generally. Ultimately, we will ask ourselves, what is education for?

- Examples of Inquiry in the Classroom
- The vision of education in Alberta
- The role of digital and online learning.

LEARNING TASKS AND ASSESSMENT

There are 3 required Learning Tasks for this course.

LEARNING TASK 1: Academic Response (Individual)
DUE on September 23

Students will be asked to respond to one or more questions (as provided by your instructor) based on the conversations in class and the assigned readings. The academic response learning task will serve two purposes. First, it will prompt students to link the scholarship of teaching and learning to the pragmatics of teaching and learning. Second, it will allow students to improve their abilities with academic reflection, a style of writing used extensively in education.

- This response will be in the form of written text (approximately 500 words, double spaced, 12-point font, Times New Roman).
- The response will include a minimum of 2 quotes from the required readings and an additional 2 quotes from any of the supplemental resources.
- Refer to the following rubric for more detailed criteria.
  - The response may be returned to you with formative feedback for improvement before the grade is issued.

Learning Task # 2 – Annotated Lesson Plan & Teaching Demonstration (Group)
Part A Due Date: October 3, 2022
Part B Due Date: November 18, 2022

Part A: Annotated lesson plan on an everyday activity with detailed reflections on choices made for the lesson
In cooperative groups of 3-4 people, students will create a lesson plan using the lesson plan criteria employed in the field experience program. The topic of this lesson plan will be an everyday activity chosen by the group members. Examples include, but are not limited to, creating play dough or slime, teaching a yoga pose, completing a read aloud, or making a simple craft. All lesson plans will make use of the lesson plan template (posted on D2L) provided by your instructor and, as such, will incorporate and, thereby clarify, the basic elements of a sound lesson plan. Please attend to additional questions and instructions in the lesson plan template.

Your group will annotate the lesson plan that has been created. To this end you will be asked to record your thoughts and decision-making processes while creating the lesson plan through written comments. You will record on the lesson plan the reasons for the choices that you have made and the intended results of creating the lesson in the manner in which you have done. The lesson plan and annotations should be 2-3 pages total, excluding attachments and references.
Note: These lesson plans are not to be curricular in nature nor are they to be associated with your teachable subject area. The goal here is to examine why we make the choices we make when planning instruction and task design for others, not to focus on the Alberta Programs of Study, which are, at this point, out of context.

Note: As this is a group assignment, please see the statement about group work at the end of the outline. All concerns with group dynamics must be brought to the instructor immediately.

Please note that A+ is an exceptional and a rare grade to be given only to works of excellence and of the highest quality.

Part B: Demonstration/reflection of annotated lesson plan from Part A, with teaching strategy learned during the Field I
During your field experience, you will have observed teachers using a wide variety of teaching strategies. A teaching strategy is a method chosen to communicate lesson content to learners that is engaging, appropriate, and student-centered. See the resources: University of Oklahoma K20 Centre (n.d.). K20 Learn: Authentic Lessons For 21st Century Learning. Instructional Strategies https://learn.k20center.ou.edu/strategies

For this assignment, your instructor will provide additional details on the way in which you will demonstrate the learning you undertook in field experience. You will be required to demonstrate and/or describe a teaching strategy to accompany the lesson plan you created for Part A. You will also produce a summary of the teaching strategy for your

Learning Task 3 – Theory to Practice Paper (Individual)
Due December 6

The purpose of the Theory to Practice assignment is for you to synthesize your learning from both this course and your time in Field Experience I. You will compose a paper (4-5 pages, double-spaced, 12-point font) reflecting on, analyzing and synthesizing your experiences, insights and learning from each week of the course, as well as your two weeks in field experience.

The framing question for this paper is: How do my beliefs and values about learning, the teaching profession, children and youth, or school culture influence my understanding of the purpose of education and schooling?

Focusing on this question, draw from your Field Experience journal, in-class discussions, discussion posts, service learning (if applicable) and readings from EDUC 430 to demonstrate deep analysis and synthesis of your experiences and your learning about the culture of schools, your emergent teacher identity, and the pragmatics of learning and teaching.

THE EXPECTATION OF EXCELLENCE IN PROFESSIONAL WORK

Please review the Academic Calendar carefully. It describes the program and provides detailed schedules and important dates. It contains information on expectations for student work and professional conduct. In addition, procedures are described regarding concern about student performance in the program. Please pay especially careful attention to details and descriptions in the following topic areas:

The Importance of Attendance and Participation in Every Class

As this is a professional program, experiences are designed with the expectation that all members will be fully involved in all classes and in all coursework experiences. As you are a member of a learning community your contribution is vital and highly valued, just as it will be when you take on the professional responsibilities of being a teacher. We expect that you will not be absent from class with the exception of documented instances of personal or family illness or for religious requirements.

Engagement in Class Discussion and Inquiry

Another reason for the importance of attendance and participation in every class is that the course involves working with fellow students to share ideas and thinking. For example, each class you will work with a small group to engage fellow students in discussions on work being considered in class. You will also help other groups by providing ideas for scholarly inquiry in assignments. If you find that you are experiencing difficulties as a group collaborating, please inform the instructor.

EXPECTATIONS FOR WRITING

All written assignments (including, to a lesser extent, written exam responses) will be assessed at least partly on writing skills. Writing skills include not only surface correctness (grammar, punctuation, sentence structure, etc.) but also general clarity and organization. Sources used in research papers must be properly documented. If you need help with your writing, you may use the writing support services in the Learning Commons. For further information, please refer to the official online University of Calgary Calendar, Academic Regulations, E. Course Information, E.2: Writing Across the Curriculum: http://www.ucalgary.ca/pubs/calendar/current/e-2.html

LATE SUBMISSIONS

All late submissions of assignments must be discussed with the instructor prior to the due date. Students may be required to provide written documentation of extenuating circumstances (e.g. statutory declaration, doctor’s note, note from the University of Calgary Wellness Centre, obituary notice). A deferral of up to 30 days may be granted at the discretion of the Associate Dean of Undergraduate Programs with accompanying written evidence.

ISSUES WITH GROUP TASKS

With respect to group work, if your group is having difficulty collaborating effectively, please contact the instructor immediately. If a group is unable to collaborate effectively or discuss course materials online in a timely manner, the instructor may re-assign members to different groups or assign individual work for completion.

Academic Accommodation

It is the student’s responsibility to request academic accommodations according to the University policies and procedures listed below. The student accommodation policy can be found at: https://www.ucalgary.ca/legal-services/sites/default/files/teams/1/Policies-Student-Accommodation-Policy.pdf. Students needing an accommodation because of a disability or medical condition should communicate this need to Student Accessibility Services in accordance with the Procedure for Accommodations for Students with Disabilities: ucalgary.ca/legal-services/sites/default/files/teams/1/Policies-Accommodation-for-Students-with-Disabilities-Procedure.pdf. Students needing an accommodation in relation to their coursework based on a Protected Ground other than Disability, should communicate this need, preferably in writing, to their Instructor.

Academic Misconduct

For information on academic misconduct and its consequences, please see the University of Calgary Calendar at http://www.ucalgary.ca/pubs/calendar/current/k.html

Attendance/ Prolonged Absence

Students may be asked to provide supporting documentation for an exemption/special request. This may include, but is not limited to, a prolonged absence from a course where participation is required, a missed course assessment, a deferred examination, or an appeal. Students are encouraged to submit documentation that will support their situation. Supporting documentation may be dependent on the reason noted in their personal statement/explanation provided to explain their situation. This could be medical certificate/documentation, references, police reports, invitation letter, third party letter of support or a statutory declaration etc. The decision to provide supporting documentation that best suits the situation is at the discretion of the student.

Falsification of any supporting documentation will be taken very seriously and may result in disciplinary action through the Academic Discipline regulations or the Student Non-Academic Misconduct policy.
