COURSE OVERVIEW:
The intent of the Specialization I Seminar is to introduce students to the concepts, theory, and design planning related to teaching within the specialization of Physical Education. Theory as connected to an understanding of practical classroom/gym/outdoor experiences will particularly inform the course curriculum and will be explored through course readings, analysis of teaching/learning artifacts, and through the design of discipline-based learning and assessment plans. Topics in teaching and learning will include teaching inclusively and addressing the needs of diverse learners, and discipline-based inquiry. Assignments will present the opportunity for students to develop an understanding of short-term instructional design and to begin to examine curriculum shifts.

LEARNER OUTCOMES:
Over the course of the semester, students will:

1) Develop a foundational understanding of the nature of discourse in the discipline, as related to teaching and learning, including specialized language, concepts, and terminology.

2) Understand the teacher as designer of learning and assessment plans and use of the resources available for designing learning and assessment.

3) Exploring and applying introductory theory related to the teaching of the discipline with an emphasis on designing discipline-based tasks and assessment processes and creating an adaptive classroom learning environment to better meet the needs of today’s diverse learners.

4) Successfully design short-term learning and assessment plans to deepen understanding of key ideas/concepts within the discipline.

COURSE DESIGN AND DELIVERY: This course will be delivered face-to-face on campus with possible engagement in a D2L environment.

LEARNING TASKS AND ASSESSMENT

LEARNING TASK 1: PHYSICAL EDUCATION ADVOCACY

Part of your role as a physical educator is to be an advocate for the health and wellness of children and youth. Physical education is an important part of children’s overall education program where teachers can help guide children to live healthy active lifestyles. As an advocate for the importance of physical education, in partners, you will design an advocacy presentation, video or other advocacy item/event (i.e. podcast, brochure, poster, flash performance) that demonstrates that you are reflective and articulate physical educators who know how to utilize resources to detail key issues in physical education. Think of this as a way to actively engage in public dialogue regarding issues in physical education.

Overall, the purpose of this assignment is to demonstrate knowledge in a physical education policy and/or practice issue, and to demonstrate effective persuasive communication skills for educating/persuading certain audiences. This also provides you with an opportunity to use your knowledge from university experience, course materials and/or practical experience to voice your concerns, perspectives, and interest in physical and health education. Advocacy items that address the social, physical, cultural, or economical aspects of physical education, wellness, health, and physical activity will be supported.

You are required to include research from academic journals and professional literature to support your arguments and statements—this is not just your opinion. Be sure to organize your advocacy item in a way that it could be used in an actual presentation to an elected official, community organization, parent group, school board and/or principal. All advocacy items created will either be presented live in class and/or posted on D2L so that there is an opportunity for peer feedback. You will use peer feedback to provide a reflective self-assessment about the quality and effectiveness of your advocacy efforts.

Additional information and guidance on completing this assignment will be discussed in class and provided in D2L.

General Grading Criteria for Learning Task 1 (A detailed rubric/checklist will be provided in D2L)

- Issue clearly identified and effectively introduced.
- Concerns, issues, perspectives from physical and health education field are clearly presented and articulated.
- The ‘so what’ is addressed (why is this important)?
- Your purpose, advocacy point(s) and call to action are clearly reiterated and appropriate summary/closing comments included.
- Multiple references are cited properly (APA 7th Edition) from a variety of sources. These references should be chosen carefully to support your major points.
- Use of other documentation, policies, mandates, objectives, strategies used to clearly advance the issue — offering the person/audience further ideas, solutions, and other considerations to address the issue.
- Audience (peer) feedback is considered in a reflective summary/self-assessment on the quality and effectiveness of your advocacy.

LEARNING TASK 2: LESSON PLANNING AND MICROTEACHING ANALYSIS (40%)

Part A: Lesson Plan

The purpose of Part A of this assignment is to provide an opportunity for you to utilize the critical teaching skills for planning and teaching physical education that we have learned/learning in the course. You will be expected to draw from the knowledge and skills you have gained about the instructional processes and teaching skills required to effectively plan physical education lesson plan and teach a portion of it to the class. This assignment will involve working with a fellow classmate. Your planning process will require collaboration with your partner, with individual responsibilities being the focus of the assessment for this assignment.

- Lesson plan sequence: Lesson 1 – student A, Lesson 2 – combined/partners, Lesson 3 – student B
- Lesson plan – Using the template provided, create quality lesson plans for your chosen activity (details of type of activities will be discussed in class). Be sure to include the following:
  - Subject, topic, grade level, class length, your name, date, total # of students.
  - General & specific outcomes
  - Lesson objectives
  - Equipment & resources needed
  - Appropriate introduction (set induction), lesson development (content analysis & development), and closure (conclusion)
  - Anticipated time, anticipated progression of tasks, how tasks will be communicated, organizational arrangements, goal orientation, teaching cues
  - Teaching & learning activities that show variety, appropriate developmental level, progressions and are connected to stated learning outcomes and objectives.
  - Safety considerations (make sure you check the School Physical Activity, Health & Education Resource for Safety).
• Assessment Strategy – Please provide a description (250-300 words) of the assessment & evaluation practices you will use to assess students in your lesson. Remember to address the principles of assessment and evaluation that have been covered in class. Also create one concrete assessment tool (e.g., rubric, checklist, etc.) & provide a rationale for your choice.

• Differentiation – Provide an overall explanation of how your lesson plan addresses the interests and needs of the full range of students in your class. For example, how will you meet the needs of all students when there may be a range of learning profiles including English language learners, students with physical disabilities, autism spectrum disorder, ADHD, and other emotional and behavioural challenges. In addition, what are some of the specific adaptations/modifications that you will be considering in your lesson to ensure inclusion of all students? Please provide at least two specific examples that you consider exemplars in learner differentiation related to specific learning activities within your lesson.

• References – Provide multiple references from a variety of sources (minimum 4). These references should be chosen carefully to support your lesson content. Please provide a reference list. APA style, 7th edition please.

Grading Criteria for Learning Task 2:

- Sufficient general information is provided for the reader: subject, topic, grade level, class length, your name, date, total # of students.
- The general/specific learning outcomes for the lesson are appropriate and clearly stated.
- Equipment and resources needed for the lesson are clearly identified.
- Appropriate introduction (motivational set) is provided with appropriate “set-up”, moderate activities, and links to focus of lesson

- Teaching-learning activities are purposeful & consistent with the learning outcomes stated.
- The lesson plan provides for a variety of teaching-learning activities, demonstrating appropriate progressions (extension, refinement, application) and addressing a diversity of student learning needs.
- Organization, teaching cues and demonstrations are appropriate, clear & concise.
- The pace, time allocation & flow of the lesson are well-planned and appropriate. Transitions between activities are clear, sufficiently detailed, and in a logical understandable sequence.

- Differentiated instruction has been considered and explained in a clear, concise way. Accommodations, adaptations and/or modifications are addressed.
- Multiple references are carefully chosen & APA format has been followed.

Part B: Microteaching Analysis

Being aware of oneself as the instrument of one’s teaching, and aware of the story that makes one’s life sensible, allows for greater change and growth as well as greater intentionality in teaching choices. (Ayers, 1988, p. 20)

For Part B, you will be team-teaching a portion of your shared lesson plan in class and reflecting on the overall process and experience. You and your partner will be expected to provide an analysis of your microteaching episode based on your own reflection, video analysis, and peer feedback.

Assignment Sections: (further details for each section will be outlined in class and posted in D2L)

1. Description of Lesson
2. Comparison of Lesson Plan and Actual
3. Strengths
4. Areas for Improvement
5. Connecting Theory and Practice
6. Implications for Professional Growth

You are expected to provide specific examples from your teaching episode to validate your analysis. This will be from your own observation of your video, an actual video clip and feedback from peers. Your analysis should include one embedded video clip for section 2, 3 and 4 above, with a combined total length of no more than three minutes (maximum).

Total length of Part B: 1000 words, 12-point font. Please use the above headings to organize your assignment. You can use Yuga or other applications/software for video-editing and submitting video clips (via D2L). Further details and guidance will be provided in-class and on D2L.

- An analysis of the theory and practice connections supported by course materials, discussions, and experiences.
- Implications for your professional growth are discussed: areas of improvement needed, possible goals for upcoming Field Experience II.
- Professional growth planning – how you plan to address your areas of improvement.
- Your overall analysis is thorough, convincing, and extremely well supported with tangible evidence.
- The submission is spell-checked, has a professional appearance and format, is well organized, uses headings & adheres to writing conventions (APA 7, word choice, error-free spelling, grammar and, punctuation), etc.
- The analysis should be typed in 12-point font, approximately 1200 words of text with a maximum of 3 minutes of video clips.

LEARNING TASK 3: BEING AND BECOMING A PHYSICAL EDUCATOR (25%)

As you begin this next phase on your journey to becoming a physical education teacher, it is important to be able to understand how you have formed your knowledge, attitudes, beliefs and values about teaching. This is the basis for a sound program and effective teaching and constitutes the basis of an individual’s actions and provides purpose to your activities. Essentially, it presents the questions: Who am I as a physical education teacher? How does the way I am a physical education teacher affect how I teach? It allows us to examine the underlying principles that guide what you think, how you teach and why you do what you do as a beginning teacher.

This assignment will take place over the entire length of the course and is divided into 4 parts (Pinar, 2012):
Stage I: Looking back – past experiences
Stage II: Forward thinking – looking towards the future
Stage III: Analysis – what does this all mean for me now?
Stage IV: Synthesis – understanding who I am as a physical educator

Your task will involve reflective writing based on some guiding questions you will be given in class. After having some time to write about your memories and experiences, you will have an opportunity to discuss some of what you have written with classmates in small groups. This discussion will likely spark more ideas and thoughts that you then can incorporate into your on-going reflective writing.
Further details related to each stage will be provided as we proceed through the course. Schedule for each stage discussion:

- Stage I – Week 2
- Stage II – Week 4
- Stage III – Week 7

This whole assignment is due on March 10th, 2023.

Grading Criteria for Learning Task 3 (more details will be provided in class and posted on D2L):

- Reflective writing demonstrates exceptional effort to meet all of the guiding questions
- Evidence of personal perspective is demonstrated within the reflective writing. Demonstrates an ability to openly examine own experiences/events
- Ideas are expressed in a clear fashion that allows the reader to be able to understand the stories, experiences, events described
- Consistently demonstrates thoughtfulness & interest in topics provided
- Each stage draft was completed on-time and ready for discussion purposes.

LEARNING TASK 4: PROFESSIONALISM (15%)

Professionalism is an expectation of teaching and therefore a significant component for this class. Here are some of the key criteria for evaluation regarding your level of professionalism in this class this term.

1. Active participation in course activities, including (but not limited to):
   - Preparing for and participating in group discussions for Being & Becoming a Physical Educator (Stages 1-3)
   - Weekly reading self-checks and/or discussion facilitation
   - Leading and participation in impromptu teaching episodes

2. Contribution to our professional learning community
   - Positive contribution to learning climate, supporting colleagues
   - Contributions to group work & partner activities/assignments
   - Engagement in class discussions
   - Preparedness for class/following deadlines
   - Peer feedback on teaching and learning activities
   - Sharing resources on D2L

Note: A detailed assessment checklist will be discussed and developed collaboratively in class.

THE EXPECTATION OF EXCELLENCE IN PROFESSIONAL WORK

Please review the Academic Calendar carefully. It describes the program and provides detailed schedules and important dates. It contains information on expectations for student work and professional conduct. In addition, procedures are described regarding concern about student performance in the program. Please pay especially careful attention to details and descriptions in the following topic areas:

- The Importance of Attendance and Participation in Every Class

As this is a professional program, experiences are designed with the expectation that all members will be fully involved in all classes and in all coursework experiences. As you are a member of a learning community your contribution is vital and highly valued, just as it will be when you take on the professional responsibilities of being a teacher. We expect that you will not be absent from class with the exception of documented instances of personal or family illness or for religious requirements.
Engagement in Class Discussion and Inquiry

Another reason for the importance of attendance and participation in every class is that the course involves working with fellow students to share ideas and thinking. For example, each class you will work with a small group to engage fellow students in discussions on work being considered in class. You will also help other groups by providing ideas for scholarly inquiry in assignments. If you find that you are experiencing difficulties as a group collaborating, please inform the instructor.

EXPECTATIONS FOR WRITING

All written assignments (including, to a lesser extent, written exam responses) will be assessed at least partly on writing skills. Writing skills include not only surface correctness (grammar, punctuation, sentence structure, etc.) but also general clarity and organization. Sources used in research papers must be properly documented. If you need help with your writing, you may use the writing support services in the Learning Commons. For further information, please refer to the official online University of Calgary Calendar, Academic Regulations, E. Course Information, E.2: Writing Across the Curriculum: http://www.ucalgary.ca/pubs/calendar/current/e-2.html

LATE SUBMISSIONS

All late submissions of assignments must be discussed with the instructor prior to the due date. Students may be required to provide written documentation of extenuating circumstances (e.g. statutory declaration, doctor’s note, note from the University of Calgary Wellness Centre, obituary notice). A deferral of up to 30 days may be granted at the discretion of the Associate Dean of Undergraduate Programs with accompanying written evidence.

ISSUES WITH GROUP TASKS

With respect to group work, if your group is having difficulty collaborating effectively, please contact the instructor immediately. If a group is unable to collaborate effectively or discuss course materials online in a timely manner, the instructor may re-assign members to different groups or assign individual work for completion.
